

ALPENA, MICHIGAN

GREAT LAKES MARITIME HERITAGE CENTER

THUNDER BAY NATIONAL MARINE SANCTUARY

Thunder Bay National Marine Sanctuary invites you to explore the Shipwreck Century at the Great Lakes Maritime Heritage Center. Experience the maritime history, shipwrecks, and archaeology of the Great Lakes.

The sanctuary protects a large collection of shipwrecks that offer incredible diving, kayaking and snorkeling opportunities! Dive in and explore Thunder Bay's exciting history.

FREE ADMISSION

Summer Hours

Mon.-Sat. 10-5

Sun. 12-5

Winter Hours

Mon.-Sat. 10-5

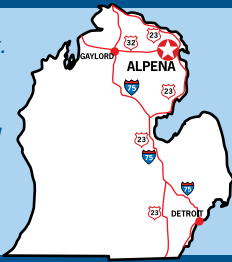

(989) 356-8805

WWW.THUNDERBAY.NOAA.GOV

WHERE TO FIND US

500 West Fletcher St.
Alpena, MI 49707
(989) 356-8805
THUNDERBAY.NOAA.GOV

THUNDER BAY

Exploring the Shipwreck Century

Walk the deck of a life-size 19th-century schooner battling a Great Lakes storm and then dive in and explore a shipwreck—without getting wet!

Maritime Heritage Trail

Stroll along the Great Lakes Maritime Heritage Trail and enjoy the outdoors while learning about the region's maritime past.

Special Events & Features

On July 4th celebrate the Thunder Bay Maritime Festival that features tall ships, live music, kids' activities, and food. Admission is FREE!

Throughout the year the Heritage Center offers educational programs for all ages. Learn about the Great Lakes, and watch scientists explore the world's oceans via live telepresence broadcasts. Check our online calendar for current details.

FREE ADMISSION
Thunder Bay
National Marine Sanctuary
& The Great Lakes
Maritime Heritage Center
500 West Fletcher Street
Alpena, MI 49707
(989) 356-8805

WWW.THUNDERBAY.NOAA.GOV